comma rules

Lists of 3 or more	Use commas to separate items in a list of three or more. I need to buy onions, potatoes, and milk from the store. In the US, typically a comma comes before the conjunction in a list.
Connect 2 independent clauses	Use commas to connect two independent clauses connected by a conjunction: for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so. John gave her a note, but Molly did not want to keep it.
Connect subordinate clause to independent clause	Use commas to connect a subordinate clause that comes before an independent clause. When Dad was five, he broke his leg during a soccer game.
Non-essential word/phrase	Use commas to set apart a word or phrase from the rest of the sentence. They set apart nonessential parts of sentence that can be taken out. The restaurant, a favorite of mine, did not have free appetizers!
Separate quotations	Use commas to separate a quotation from the rest of the sentence. Johnny said, "I am going to the football game." "I am so excited to watch the game," said Stephen. "When the game is over," said Malik, "let's go out to eat."
Introductory element	Use commas to separate introductory elements in a sentence like interjections. Well, you better do your homework tonight if you want to play.
City and State City and Country	Use commas to separate a city and state OR a city and country. I am from Atlanta, Georgia. I traveled to Munich, Germany.
Day of week, and month or date and year	Use commas to separate the day and month OR day and month. Tuesday is Thursday, November 4, 2016. Yesterday was Wednesday, November 3. NO COMMA BETWEEN MONTH AND YEAR IF THERE IS NO DATE They went to the park last July 2016.
